The republican Senators in caucus at Washington, last Friday, unanimously tendered the nomination for Vice President to John A. Logan, who declined to if he lives, there can be no doubt.

Circuit Judge in this Judicial District, is known to every voter, either by sight or by reputation. Since he has been on the bench he has displayed those qualities, which are desirable in a Judge, in such a satisfactory manner that no one has opposed him for the nomination and we feel safe in saying that he will have no opposition from the Republicans. He has been the Judge of the people, and his decisions and rulings have been so honest and fair that he is as popular with Republicans wherever she goes, and we hope she will spend the winter with us.
